Mayor O'Connor call the Public Hearing to order at 6:30 pm

Mayor O'Connor read the opening statement that forms part of these minutes.

The purpose of this Public Hearing is to consider an amendment to the Village of Lytton Official Community Plan (OCP) Bylaw 475, 1997 and an amendment to the Village of Lytton Zoning Bylaw 484, 1998. The changes are being considered to assist Tien Sher in the development of their property at the Airport.

There were seven members of the public in attendance. Val Ablett, Jason Robertson, Joe and Peggy Chute, Jan Polderman, Kathy Hibberson.

Mayor O'Connor requested the Administrator to read any correspondence received concerning the amendments to the bylaws.

The Administrator read three letters of which two were related to the airport development and the other will be taken into consideration when the sub division portion of the development takes place. The letters were from the Ministry of Highways, Derek Kingston, and Sharon Smith. (Letters Attached)

Mayor O'Connor requested for a first time if anyone wished to make a representation with no replies from the public.

Mayor O'Connor requested for a second time if anyone wished to make a representation with no replies from the public.

Mayor O'Connor requested for a third and final time if anyone wished to make a representation with no replies from the public.

MOTION: Motion to adjourn the Public hearing at 6:45 pm
