

Resiliency Centre to Open in Lytton

Press Release / November 24, 2021

Lytton, BC—November 24, 2021— the Village of Lytton (VOL) will open a Resiliency Centre in Lytton to support wildfire evacuees and area residents. The Centre will be open beginning on Monday, November 29th, and will be located at the Kumsheen ShchEma-meet School, at 365 Trans-Canada Highway in Lytton, BC. Hours of operation will be posted shortly on social media and on Lytton.ca.

"The need to care for one another, to ensure that we can come together and help out our neighbours, friends, families and even strangers is what makes #LyttonStrong. We are excited to take this next step in the rebuilding of our community." - Mayor Jan Polderman

The Resiliency Centre will provide valuable resources (in-person and virtual) for area residents, including a business centre, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and representatives from the insurance industry. Further representation from select NGOs are currently being finalized and will be announced on the Lytton.ca website.

For more information, contact:
Alison Poste, Recovery Manager
Village of Lytton
Email: APoste@lytton.ca